By the way, Fumihiko, how do you think about having MTCA workshop in Japan?

Is it helpful for Japanese MTCA community?

A short story

By the way, Fumihiko, how do you think about having MTCA workshop in Japan?

Is it helpful for Japanese MTCA community?

Fumihiko (J-PARC)

Y...es! It should be beneficial for Japanese community.

I will organize the MTCA workshop in Japan!

(Hmm..., but I wonder how many people will join the workshop.
MTCA is still not very popular in Japan...)

Finally. . .

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the participant list for the MTCA workshop. The browser's address bar shows the URL: <https://conference-indico.kek.jp/event/153/registrations/participants>. The page header indicates the event is on 26-28 October 2021, Virtual (Zoom). A message states: "Zoom link for the workshop will be sent on October 25 (Mon) to the registered mail address." The left sidebar contains a menu with the following items: Overview, Timetable, Presentation instruction, Contribution List, Book of Abstracts, Timetable at a Glance, Participant List (highlighted), Registration / Abstract Submission, MTCA Tutorial in Japanese, News, and CONTACT. The main content area is titled "Participant List" and shows "123 participants". Below this is a table with three columns: First Name, Last Name, and Affiliation.

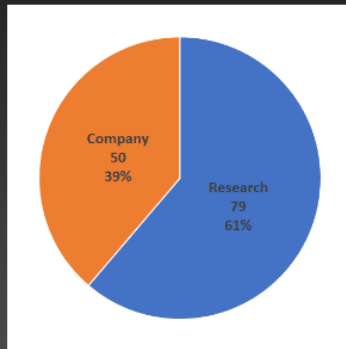

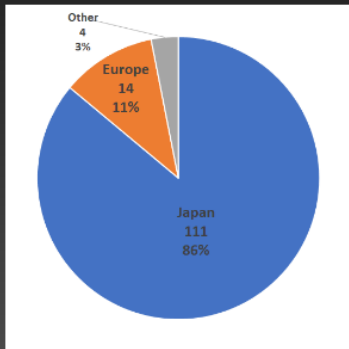

First Name	Last Name	Affiliation
Akio	Kiyomichi	JASRI
Akira	Sato	StarBridge, Inc.
Alex	Mao
Ayato	Ono	日本原子力研究開発機構 J-PARCセ...
Bailing	DU	University of Science and Technology ...

Despite of my concern, more than 120 people have registered to the workshop.
(Thanks to virtual format)

Upcoming 10th MTCAWS at DESY, December 7-9, 2021

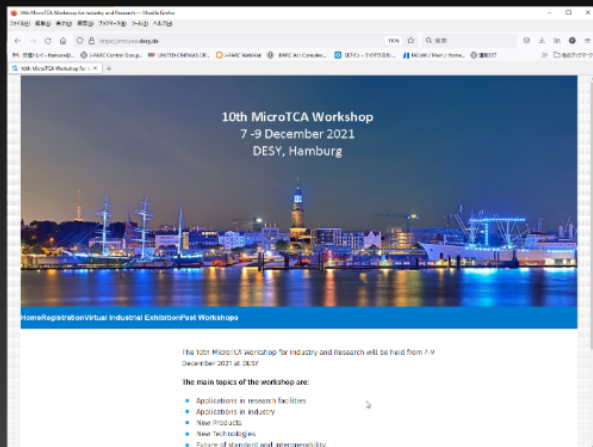

<https://mtcaws.desy.de/>

- Virtual format this year (Zoom)
- Registration open / abstract submission deadline soon (Nov. 1)
- Both research and industry are welcome

Participation of Japanese people is strongly encouraged.

My opinion: Japanese MTCA companies that have their own products (Uber, Mitsubishi Tokki, Hitachizosen, etc) should join and make presentations.

Conclusion

The MTCA workshop in Japan 2021 was successful.

We should continue:

- to develop and strengthen Japanese MTCA community
- to exchange information and experiences
- to eye the MTCA situation in the world

Next workshop in Japan?

Not planned yet, but will be held within a few years. Hopefully a real workshop.
