

Complex Langevin Applied to Lattice QCD at High Density

The complex Langevin method is applied to the lattice QCD at high density. We propose a new method where a source term coupled with a diquark is introduced to investigate the color-superconductivity in the gauge invariant manner.

Presenter: Dr MIURA, Kohtaroh (KEK IPNS)

Session Classification: Parallel Session B